PROJECT SUMMARY-----

Vibrant and alive, SHEBAD is a Guelph based music and art project playing in many realms including Experimental RnB. Grounded by jazz-influenced melodies, danceable basslines and a transcendent voice, the music is immediately compelling and curious. Their sound as described by CBC's Laila Biali "Music that exists in a sonic world of its own". Their debut EP, "show us it's real", has been featured on NPR's KCRW, CBC Radio, and three Spotify Curated playlists. This is a completely independent project. Most of the visual art, and all of the merch is created by the band. The music is recorded and produced at home. Love is their message, music is their answer. Open yourself, absorb, enjoy.
